

Ronald K. Martin serves as Administrative Bishop in the Church of God in Ohio. Before taking this position in Ohio, they served the Church of God In Greater Chicago and Wisconsin, as Administrative Bishop. Prior to re-entering state work the Martins pastored for 13 years in Cincinnati, Ohio at the Central Parkway Church of God. During his pastorate in Cincinnati, Ron organized and served as President of Compassion Cincinnati, Inc. Ron and Roshelle Martin also served as pastor for six years in Tennessee and as State Youth and Christian Education Director in the States of Missouri and Northern Ohio. Ron presently serves as Chairman of the Church of God Home For Children Board and has served the denomination on numerous other state and national boards and committees, which include Chairman of the National Youth and Christian Education Board, National Sunday School Task Force, Care Campus Board and Ohio State Council. He has authored numerous articles for publication and been featured guest speaker in training and ministry conferences. The Martins have two daughters, Kimberly who is married to Eric Petree, and together they pastor the City Gate Church in Mason, Ohio and Melissa who is married to Justin Graham, and together they pastor The Avenue Church, in Morristown, Tennessee. The Martins are the proud grandparents of Saige Petree, Simon Petree, Jocelyn and Judah Graham.