

Roshelle Martin was born in Dayton, Ohio and raised in a ministers home. Her parents, Sim and Shirley Wilson pastored in several cities in Ohio, Virginia and Florida. They were also in State Administration in West Virginia, California, North Carolina and Pacific Northwest, so she has experienced living in many states. After marrying Bishop Ron Martin in 1977, they went into full time ministry. They have served as Youth Pastors in Maryland, Pastors in Philadelphia, Tennessee and Cincinnati, Ohio, State Youth Directors in Missouri and Northern Ohio, and Administrative work in the Great Lakes Region. Ministry has been the central part of who she is all her life. Her heart is for pastor's wives and the challenges they face. She has a desire to connect with them, and to minister to their needs. She finds it such an honor to serve God by loving those He has called. She has been blessed with two beautiful daughters and two awesome son-in-laws. Kimberly and Eric Petree pastor City Gate in Lebanon, Ohio and Melissa and Justin Graham pastor The Avenue in Morristown, Tennessee. Her greatest joys are her four amazing grandchildren, Jocelyn Graham that is 12, Saige Petree that is 11, Judah Graham that is 10 and most recently Simon Rush Petree who was born October 11, 2018.
